

David Reilly,
Client Service Director, Grant Thornton

David is a Client Service Director with Grant Thornton and advises clients on all matters relating to employment tax, including PAYE, NIC and benefits in kind. David's clients range from fully listed global companies, through Universities and not for profit organisations to small companies and partnerships. David advises clients on cost saving opportunities including flexible benefits arrangements, and managing tax risk, the latter including dealing with all aspects of HM Revenue & Customs' compliance reviews.

Having begun his professional career as an Employer Compliance Officer with HM Revenue & Customs, David understands the way in which HM Revenue & Customs operates and is ideally placed to help clients. David, who is a Chartered Accountant and a Chartered Tax Adviser, is currently Deputy Chairman of the Employment Tax and NIC Committee of the ICAEW.
