

Don McGuire
Managing Director, ADP UK

Having built a reputation around business development for ADP Canada, Canadian born Don McGuire joined the UK team in October 2007 to lead ADP's Employer Services business as Managing Director.

Don originally joined ADP Canada in 1998 as Vice-President Finance; a year later he was promoted to CFO and then in 2002 to Division Vice President of Service Delivery, where he was responsible for Implementation, Service, Print and Logistics.

During Don's time in Canada he played a major role in helping the organisation grow and integrate two large bank acquisitions. He was instrumental in the successful implementation of the Money Movement system, as well as the roll out of hosted payroll and Time & Attendance services.

Previous to ADP Canada, Don worked as the CFO for Black and Decker, Inc and he began his career in public accounting.

Don holds both undergraduate and graduate degrees from York University and is a Certified General Accountant.
